Peña Taurina Sol y Sombra
P.O. Box 4256
Hayward, Ca 94540-4256

The purpose of this Peña is to establish a non-political, non-profit organization to create a true interest in tauromaquia and to further the education and understanding of its members in La Fiesta Brava.

This aim shall be instituted by: Joining together in constituting a single voice in influencing the affairs of the taurine world by adherence to the established local and national laws and traditions of La Fiesta Brava by those responsible for the organization, performance, and governing of the corridas; Being international in order to reunite our interests with all aficionados everywhere; Promoting better understanding and appreciation of the art of La Fiesta Brava in the United States in order to enlighten the prospective American aficionado, both for his or her own advantage and for that of the Fiesta in general.
